CLOS BARENYS RESERVA 2001

Cabernet and Merlot grapes from our estates are blended to create a very rich and complex wine, which is lively in its fruit and rounded over a good tannic structure which will reward further cellaring. It exhibits aromas with spices, toffee and toasted notes. The finish is long and opulent with a touch of butter and vanilla.

Type of wine:	Red Reserva Wine
Varieties:	50% Cabernet Sauvignon, 50% Merlot.
Vintage:	2001
Alcohol:	13% vol.
Contents:	75 cl.
Denomination of Origin:	Tarragona
Elaboration:	Fermentation with controlled temperature made in stainless steel tank.
Aging:	12 months
Staying in bottle:	24 months (minimum)
Barrel:	French (Allier) and American Oak.
Taste:	The Reservas represent the best selection of each vintage. Cabernet and Merlot grapes from our estates are blended to create a very rich and complex wine, which is lively in its fruit and rounded over a good tannic structure which will reward further cellaring. Deep dark bright ruby colour with hints of red clay. Intense and deep bouquet, with notes of fruits -blueberry and raspberry- combined with balsamic, toffee and toasted notes. The finish is long and opulent with a touch of butter and vanilla. This wine can present sediments due to its minimum treatment in order to preserve the highest qualities of the wine.
Marriage:	Red meat. Iberian cold and smoky meat. Cured cheese.
